- 1) Good Morning Cubs! Please rise for the Pledge of Allegiance.
- 2) Today's lunch is: Orange Chicken
- 4) Attention 6th graders! Check your email before the end of this week to vote on a special WEB event. WEB wants YOUR voice in choosing a movie for a special after school event just for you! Go Sixth Graders and Go cubs!
- 5) Attention Wrestlers! Wrestling orders are due TODAY by 2:00 PM. See Miss Trujillo at the ASB window before school or at lunches. Thank you!
- 6) Cubs! Don't forget that as the end of the semester is nearing you can trade in your cub coins for some big awesome prizes! For 100 cub coins, you can go bowling! For 150 cub coins you can take a sneak peak tour of our new school! There are a limited number of spots, so turn in your coins to Ms. Paulson or Mrs. Balzaretti soon!
- 7) There will be an assembly today during enrichment to honor Martin Luther King Jr. Thank you for following assembly expectations by showing our speakers and guests how respectful students at CKMS are.
- 8) Did you know that one of Martin Luther King Jr.'s advisers had recommended that he leave out the "I have a dream" phrase for his speech on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial in 1963? Luckily, King ignored that recommendation. That speech and quotes from many others have inspired us and given us the courage to act upon our own dreams. In honor of a great man, let us all hold our dreams up for the world to see and our hearts to embrace. Here are a few of King's pearls of wisdom to help remind you of the power of a vision.
"In the end, we will remember not the words of our enemies, but the silence of our friends." , "If you can't fly then run, if you can't run then walk, if you can't walk then crawl, but whatever you do you have to keep moving forward." and finally Everybody can be great ... because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love."

It will be a great day if you choose to make it one, Have a great day Cubs!!
