

Standards of Conduct

I, _____, understand that in becoming a member of this traveling group, I am joining a program that offers a unique and enjoyable educational travel experience, an opportunity for personal growth and development, and a long tradition of working to further international friendship and understanding.

As a student of CKSD, my actions reflect not only upon me, but upon my school, my family, and my country as well. To that purpose I will be mindful of my actions, manners, speech, and conduct with others. I understand my responsibilities to be those of extending goodwill, friendship, courtesy, and respect to whomever I meet, and sharing the best of what we are as American citizens.

I accept the supervision and discipline of my Leaders and Chaperones, who have been appointed to ensure a safe and rewarding learning experience for all students.

I understand the Standards of Conduct as explained to me and that the guidelines are necessary for my safety, security, and general welfare and that of my fellow travelers. If I purposefully fail to follow those agreed-upon guidelines, I understand that I am responsible for the following consequences of my actions:

First offense:
(unless extremely serious)

I will receive a verbal warning.

Second offense:

Mr. Fultz will telephone my parents to discuss the situation. Letters of apology may also be written to the offended parties (hotel, etc.).

Third offense:
(or for any extremely serious offense)

I will be placed on the next flight home at my parents' expense.
